Serving our Neighbors (Son)

With Thanksgiving and Christmas coming, there are several opportunities to serve with SON, as follows:

- Hosting people for Christmas. This involves including one or more of the people who SON works with in your meal and anything else that is part of your tradition.
- Providing a Christmas gift. Sponsors are needed for a handful of adults. We usually spend about $50 per person, but we can pair a few people together if that works better for you. The things that people have asked for in the past have been quite simple. They have been very thankful in the past, so I would expect the same this year.
- Driving people to/from Salvation Army bell-ringing positions.

Please contact Lisa Daubenspeck at mdaubenspeck@comporium.net or 803-448-7901 if you can help or if you have questions.

Tree Trimming and Adorning the Church for Advent

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 28TH
9:00AM

Come to trim the tree and adorn the church for Advent. We will be serving coffee, hot cocoa and pastries as we decorate the church. Bring a Christmas tree ornament from your family to place on the Christmas tree. This is a family event and a way for all ages to serve Our Savior, Jesus.

DEAR CHURCH FAMILY - The Bronander family would like to extend an open invitation for Thanksgiving dinner at their house Thursday, November 26th at 3:00pm. Bring a side or dessert to share. Please RSVP to Pamela and Frank at pamela.bronander@yahoo.com.

Kid User-Friendly Library - The church library has many books for children of all ages. If desired, please feel free to encourage your child to choose a book or two to enjoy during the service. There is no need to take the time to formally check the book(s) out as long as the books are returned at the end of the service.

LADIES BOOK CLUB - The book for November will be "Friendship Cake" by Lynne Hinton. The next monthly meeting will be Monday, November 30, 2015. Please contact Terry Van Dyke at tvchatta72@yahoo.com if you have any questions.
